HOW TO SPEND XMAS.

RICHMOND PEOPLE WILL OBSERVE THE NATAL DAY IN VARIOUS WAYS.

Many Answers Given a Dispatch Man Who Interrogated Prominent Citizens on the Fly.

Interviewing is a duty which often de volves upon a reporter, but which, alas! is usually more disagreeable than anything else that a newspaper-man has to do. The average citizen likes to see his name in print, but wouldn't let the newspapers learn this fact if he could possibly avoid it. So he tells the reporter that he is too busy to talk. But when Christmas approaches all men become more genial approaches all men become more genial than is their wont, and are pleasant and affable.

Knowing this to be true, a Disparch man went out on the street to interview every reachable citizen on the temporarily important question, How will you spend Christmas? The reporter saw many men and put them on the rack. Some of them—the positively-decline-to-be-interviewed sort—forgot their usual coldness as visions of roast turkey and mince-pie floated past their mind's eye and contented themselves with modest, non-committal replies, while others unbosomed themselves cheerfully.

cheerfully.

The result of this day's interviewing—the general consensus of Richmond opinion of the way to spend Christmas—is appended below. Merely the remarks of the various gentlemen who were interviewed see given, and their friends must imagine the manner with which their several bone manner w.s. sts were spoken.

John T. Anderson: Keep sober and have fun out of the boys that get off. Charles Antrim: Quit work and have a jolly, good time, as all good citizens should do.

John T. Alvey: I am going to the coun

John T. Alvey: I am going to the country.

Madison T. Arrington: You must not devote more than three columns of the Disparces to me. I am going to Europe.

Captain J. B. Angle: I will bide a portion of my time on the streets and the remainder in the station-house, Yes, I shall have a little eggnog at home in the morning. Come around to see me.

City-Clerk B. T. August: I am going to spend Christmas very quietly at home with my family. John F. T. Anderson: At my tather's, where we will have a reunion of all the children and grandchildren, as has been the custom for many years. В.

N. E. Bell: I am not going to tell you. Carter Brander: I am going hunting with some friends. Samuel Bowman: Hard at work at the office, as I have done for the past seventeen years.

Edward S. Bates: I don't know.

R. A. Branch: I am going to kill time in Amelia county.

W. P. Burton: Stay at home and rest.

L. Borchers: I am going to have a good time and am opposed to spending anything.

Jake Blumelinck: I am going to celebrate the day the best I know how.

Charles A. Brown: I am going to see

Charles A. Brown: I am going to spend it at home and knock the boy out.
E. A. Baughman: At home firing pop-crackers with the children.
A. Bowie, Jr.: I have been on the look-out for you. I suppose I must report. I have three girls, so I am going to stay at here.

home.
A. B. Blair: I can't tell to save my life.
How are you going to spend yours?
C. J. Bosher: You can't give me away that way. L. G. Burrus: I shall "sport" around town.

T. M. Binford: I am going to church, which is my usual custon.
Peter J. Burton: I am going to spend every cent I've got. I don't know what else I shall do yet.
B. E. Boswell, of Brook road: I will spend Xmas in Richmond firing poperack-ers.

ers.
James R. Branch: I am going to have a jolly, good old time.
Charles P. Bigger: O. K. I am going to Charles P. Bigger: O. K. I am going to eat my turkey at the almshouse.

Thomas Holling: I shall be at 610 Monroe Terrace, west Franklin.

Lekoy E. Brown It will be my delight to renew the memory of my youthful days be watching my children enjoying the gifts of Santa Chais, especially my boy with his new billy-goat.

Alderman J. W. Carter: I am going in he country next week for a hunt. Won't ou go with me? I will take Christmas you go with me? I will take Christmas dinner at home. W. S. Constable: I shall spend the day very quietly.

William H. Cullingworth: Very, very quietly at home.
Sam. Cohen; I have been working hard all the week, and I am going to rest under the shade of a Christmas-tree.
Judge George L. Christian; At my house and at my office.

W. Miles Cary: At home with my family on thristmas-day and the balance of the holidays in the field with my dogs.

Oscar Cranz, Jr.: You are not going to Sergeant Junius A. Cosby: Well, I shall sleep during the day and be on duty at might. No eggnog; but you come down home (with a wink) and see how I spend home (with a wink) and see how I spend Christmas.

Walter Christian: As I have company at home I shall spend Christmas there among my family and friends.

C. C. Cauthorn: At the Richmond Club.
J. Cringan: Going to church.
Rooert Courtney: Well, I don't know as that is any of your business, but I am going to have a royal good time.

C. V. Clash: Stay at home with the baby and let it have a good time.

W. W. Cosby: At home eating turkey.
George W. Clark: I am going to stick my ears up and go to bed.

J. G. Cosby: I am going to get "so so" and have a good time.

John A. Curtis: I am going to church in the morning and spend the balance of the day in the house. Christmas is children's day.

A. F. Craig: At home. I am going to day.

A. F. Craig: At home. I am going to drink some eggnog, but don't you put it in the paper.

J. H. Capers: Quietly at home with my family.

Frank Cunningbam: Stay in my office and let my Deputy go to church.

John Clapp: I am going to take my Christmas dinner with my mother, in Philadelphia.

Dick Cauthorn: Work hard all the morning and be with the boys in the afternoon.
Edward S. Cardoza: I have just got back from the good old Southwest and am going to have a good time with the boys.

Frank A. Davenport: Don't ask me!
Samuel T. Davis: Keep sober.
G. A. Davenport: Go away: I have not made up my mind.
Major Clay Drewry: Look here, boy, if you put me in your paper I will kill you.
Allan E. Donnan: Shall spend the day with my parents in Petersburg.
Gus. Delarue: Quietly, peaceably, like a gentieman, and take the Madam to church.
W. E. Drew: I am married now and have got to work.

got to work.
J. A. McDonough · I am a married man, J. A. McDonough: I am a married man, you know—no monkey basiness.

B. P. Dunnavant: I am going to take dinner with my grandmother.

Joseph C. Dickerson: Eating, drinking, and being merry, if I don't get sick.

Joseph Davis: I don't know and don't want to appear in print, for I might tell a story about it.

John Enders: I am not going to tell you. Cris. Evensen: At home. Do you know of any better place? F. C. Ebel: At home with my family and play with the boy.
Tuzewell Ellett: Look here, I want to Tazewell Ellett: Look here, I want to keep out of newspapers.

Sergeant Charles H. Epps: I shall be at home all day. The front gate will be fastened back with a wire, so that the boys can't cut it, and all my friends will be welcome between the hours of 9 in the morning and 5 in the afternoon.

Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson: At home with my family.

Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson: At home with my family.

Han not going to take a drop, but will have a pleasant day at home.

Louis Rawlings: As I have already spent all my money I can't tell what Pil do Christmas.

Jacob Reinbardt: After church services I am going to remain at home with my family.

8.

H.

A. C. Houston: I don't know. How are you going to spend yours?
Charles Houston: I can't say.
Henry Hungeriord: I am going to treat all the boys. I have got torty-two 'possums tor lunch. Come around: don't you want to seem them fight?
Philip Hazall: In the quiet of my home.
Saunders Hobson: I will enjoy Christmas as usual with my friends.
W. B. Hancock: I will enjoy Christmas as usual with my friends.
W. B. Hancock: I will spend Xmas firing crackers.
R. M. Hardaway: Make a speech to my wife on the benefits of home consumption.
Cunningham Hall: You are asking me a conundrum.

conundrum.
Frank D. Hill: It has been my custom for twenty-five years to spend Christmas with my family.
A. L. Haynes: I can't tell you; very

A. L. Haynes: I can't tell you; very quietly, I guess. General James C. Hill: Go to my home in Albemarle, eat turkey, oysters, &c., and take a drink.

Barton Haxall: I have no plans.

Ed. Hannewinckel: Quietly at home, guess.

Alfred T. Harris, Jr.: Soberly ——.
F. W. Hannewinckel: I never do any-thing Christmas-day except to keep sober.

F. Boykin Jacobs: Firing pop-crackers.
David B. Jones: Drink a little eggnog.
Charles G. Jurgens: Hope to spend a pleasant day, it you are passing drop in.
J. B. Johnson: I am going to oscillate between my home and fichmond Ciub.
Squire W. B Jones: The most of my time will be occupied in bailing coons out of the lock-up.
Levin Joynes: I do not know how I shall spend it. It depends upon circumstances.
Might take a drink with you if you were to ask me. J.

ask me.
Thomas Jones: At home with my wife and children.

K. W. P. Knowles: I am going to stay in Peter Keiningham: Work half the day and frolic the balance.

I., Mr. Charles T. Lochr: I shall wait for developments before I prophesy as to how I shall bide my time on the coming holi-

I shall bide my time on the coming holf-days.

James B. Lacy: I am going to spend the day at home playing with the basies. I think that is the best way, don't you?

C. D. Langhorn: Dodging my creditors, accepting all invitations, and giving away as little as I can.

William Lee: I am going to make the finest bowl of eggnog in the city.

George Lyon: I am not going to tell you. You will put it in the paper.

Daniel Lyons, Jr.,: I am at anybody's service before and after dumer.

Judge James C. Lamb: In Charles City county with my friend Senator Tyler.

H. P. Lefebvie: In the bosom of my family.

H. F. Lendove: In the family.
Calvin Lipscomb: Well, just the same as I do every Sunday.
Ben. R. Lipscomb: I shall spend it at Presque Isle. Don't you want to go? You would have a good time.
John H. Lyons: I am afraid to say.
Lewis H. Lightfoot: I am going to spend Christmas at my country home bunting.

unting.
William Lovenstein: Hard at work. That is what I am going to do.

M.
R. M. McIntire: No. you don't! Oh, 1 will take it all back. You can't interview City-Attorney Charles V. Meredith: One ur men got me on that question last Excuse me this time.
J. H. McGilvray: I shall have a very

Mr. J. H. McGilvray: I small have a very quiet Christmas.
Wyndham R. Meredith: At home quietly. How are you going to spend yours? Reporter: I am all right.
William A. Mann: I am going to give flowers to the girls.
B. B. Munford: In my office at work.
Warner Moore: It is not any of your business. I am hunting a friend.
Hill Montague: Take a little eggnogg.
Louis Minnigerode: I will be quiet at home with my wife. The boys will not get me out.

me out. W. D. Myer: I am going to take dinner at the Bohemian Club and the evening at Togot party. Henry Moore: I will tell you after Christmas.
Alex. Mitteldorfer: Quiet at home.
George W. Minter: I am going to call on my girl

J. D. McIntire: I am going to the Westmoreland Club and the following morning I guess I shall have to take a little seitzer. Walter C. Moore: Stay at home and have a pleasant day with the old lady.
A. H. Meyer: Watching the candle burn. Percy Montague: Let me alone. I am not going to tell you what I am going to do. Junius Mosby: I don't know. It depends upon circumstance; probably with a wet — my head. wet --- my head.

J. T. Nowlan: I am going to work all day. P. W. Noland: I am going to church in the morning with my best girl, and take a little eggnogg in the afternoon and fire-erackers.

Harry B. Owen : At home.

P.
Mr. Thomas Potts: I expect to spend the day at home, though I shall attend services at my church. As I have never tasted eggnog I do not expect to take any upon that Major Poe, Chief of Police: Oh, you fel lows are terrors. I am going to do the best I can on Christmas to keep the boys straight. I hope we will have an orderly city. C. I. Philips: I never have a chance nowadays to do anything but work and shall spend the day quietly at home.

Colonel John B. Purceli: I will have to pay you a salary to let me alone.

Pat. Rafter: I am going to try to kill a fox. Edward D. Price: I am going to make it pleasant at home to my little ones.

W. A. Powers: I am going to take the madam to church and spend the afternoon with my pet. Thomas Poindexter: I am not one of the Thomas Poindexter: I am not one of the boys of the town.

James D. Patton: At home quietly.
William B. Pizzini: I expect to spend it at home quietly, as usual, R. T. Pemberton: Stay at home and keep sober.
William Perkins: With my wife and child

C. H. Page: Don't tell; I am going to

C. H. Page: Don't tell; I am going to keep it dark.

J. W. Peatross: Stay at home with the children.

John Potts: I am going to be with my family all day if I can.

T. M. Perkins: I am going to church in the morning, and the balance of the day playing with the finest boy in the citx.

A. C. Porter: Playing with the children and fire-crackers.

Edward T. Paull: I think it more likely after eating a good dinner I will monkey around the store.

Q.

Ben. M. Quarles: I am going to spend an

Ben. M. Quarles: I am going to spend an old-fashion Christmas at home after the style of the poem that I saw in the Distance as near as possible.

N. V. Randolph: It is not any of your N. V. Rahndoph: It is not any or your business.

F. Edgar Rowe: I am one of the quietest of quiet, and shall spend the day playing at home with the little one.

Samuel Regester: Oh! Mr. you will have to excuse me. I am not built that way.

Robert-Ralston: I want to go in the woods and hide myself.

William L. Royall: Ah pshaw, you are going to put it in the newspapers. I am going to spend the day praying and singing psalms.

ing psalms.
Wilham Rueger: The same old thing.
George Rady: I have not time to tell

David Richardson: At home with the old lady and the children.
W. H. Briggs: I have not made up my mind.

Alfred von N. Rosenegk I am not going to take a drop, but will have a pleasant day with the old lady and the children in the neighborhood.

H.

A. C. Houston: I don't know. How are you going to spend yours?

A. C. Houston: I don't know. How are you going to spend yours?

home.

Harry Smith: I have got the "remorse" badly, and I am guing to spend the day with the babies.

Fred. W. Scott: At General Logan's country place.

Ashton Starke: If you don't get out here I will take something and knock you on the head. on the head.
Charles E. Smith: I shall spend the holidays in New York.
Frank D. Steger: Stay at home and give the little ones a good time.

T. Miles Turpin: I want to have a pleasant time with my grandchildren. Don't put me in your paper. J. M. Thompson: I am going to take a bunt hunt.

Charles L. Todd: I am going to church and make the day pleasant to my wife and shildren.

and make the day pleasant to my wife and children.
Lucien B. Tatum: I always spend my Christmas at home. I don't go out the house on that day.
John Tatum: Writing up my books.
W. H. B. Taylor: I am going to try to kill birds at Negro Foot.
W. H. Talbott: At home with my wife and children.
George Watt Taylor: I want to go to my Dutch Gap farm and have one of yeold-time Christmas dinners, having just killed pigs.
George D. Thaxton: With the little one at home firing pop-crackers.

Christmas dinners, having does not at home firing pop-crackers.

Dick Taylor says he is going to church for the first time on Christmas-day in his life, and then eat a big dinner and play with the children the rest of the day.

Charles F. Taylor: I am going to have a real good old Christmas popping pop-crackers, such as I used to have when a boy around old Benigni Catogni's corner, when he gave each boy a penny Christmas-gift, which was as big to us as Jay Gond's fortune.

J. R. Tenant: I am going to have a good time as I can, for Christmas does not come but once a year.

Coroner William H. Taylor: I'm not one of you wanderers, so I shall stay right there in Richmond.

Dr. Rives Tatum: I am going to spend Christmas in a very pions sort of way. I one of you wanderers, so I shall stay right here in Richmond.

Dr. Rives Tatum: I am going to spend Christmas in a very plous sort of way. I shall go to Harrisonburg, where my family are, on Fnursday, and will spend a portion of the holidays there.

Edward E. Taylor: I am not looking so far ahead as that.

G. R. Tabb: I always take holiday on the 4th of July and at Christmas when they come on a Sunday.

ome on a Sunday. W.

Everett Waddev: Say I am going to drink eggnog, keep open house, and invite all my friends.
Frank Word: I will be out of town.
Foundan DeWitt: Work, work, work.
Ves, all day.
Charles E. Wortham: Why do you ask me that question? Don't all good men spend their Christmas at home with their family?

George Wilde: Nothing in the world, only see a few of my friends.

Louis Winston: Ha! ha! You caught ne that way last year.

Charles L. Wade: Take Christmas dinner than the charles the way has family it is the Charles L. Wate: Take Christinas dinner with my father and his family. It is the enstom of my father to have his children with him on that day. What are you going to do? Colonel William F. Wickham: Most of the day trayelling. I am going to visit my sister. Charles U. Williams; Soberly, I hope. Charles U. Williams; Soberly, I hope.

Walter A. Williams; Teach my boy how to shoot pop-crackers.
P. G. Woolfolk: I am going to spend my Christmas listing for assignment from Eastern North Carolina.
Claiborne Watkins, Jr.: I am going to be with home-folks and take the road next day.

be with home-folks and take the folk lady.

Charles H. Watkins, laughing: I am afraid to tell you.

Jefferson Wallace; Ich will mehr als ein hundert glass wein trinken und will auen sehr viel fleisch essen.

W. P. Wood: Get a good head on me possibly and take a nap in the afternoon.

B. C. Wherry: Ha! ha! you are at that again, you can't catch me.

A. S. Wiley: In the most quiet way. There is going to be a chicken-fight next month. nonth. Judge Sam'l B. Witt: I have been disap pointed in previous Christmas holidays in so many of my calculations as to how I should spend the holiday that I don't know this time how it will turn out.

L. C. Younger: At work : I have my inventory to take.

Personals and Briefs.

The Governor is still confined to his room by sickness. Mr. William A. Wyatt is out after a of Lee Terrace, i John Morton

The Chancery Court will adjourn this afternoon for the December term.

Mr. Robert E. Fairlamb, who has been working at Reidsville, N. C., is at home for the holidays. Mrs. Josephine McRae Embrey, of No Orleans, is on a visit to relatives and friends in this city.

Colonel B. F. W. Carter, of Cincinnati, formerly of Richmond, is on a visit to friends and relatives.

Mrs. D. C. Zollickoffer is spending the Christmas holidays with her mother, in Mathews county.

Matnews county. Mr. Gustav V. Lansing, of New York, a prominent member of the National Ticket Brokers' Association, is in the city. Mrs. Wash and children of Charleston W. Va., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Yalborough, No. 418% south Pine street.

borough, No. 418), south Pine street.

Mr. J. J. Burke, of Ronceverte, W. Va., is in the city. He leaves to-morrow for his former home, in Mathews county, where he will spend a few days.

Henry Berkle, charged with bigamy, has been bailed in the sum of $500 for his appearance before the January term of the Hustings Court grand jury.

Dr. J. D. Pendleton, Clerk of the Senate, received a telegram yesterday morning summoning him home immediately on ac-count of the illness of his wife. Cadets Charlie and Walter Phillips, of Fishburne Military Academy, will reach home to-day to spend the holidays with their father, Colonel A. L. Phillips. The four negro children who were so badly burned Monday morning and were taken to the hospital for treatment were reported yesterday as getting along very well and out of danger.

The next regular meeting of the Old Dominion Democratic Club will not be held until January 14, 1892, because of the fact that the regular meeting for this month falls on Christmas-eve.

Mr. W. P. Lawton, the jocose Clerk of the Hustings Court, says he will be in his office till 12:30 o'clock on Christmas-day to issue marriage licenses to those desiring to celebrate the occasion in a nuptial

Mrs. Harry Lee Hyndman (nee Meade), of Cineinnati, O., and husbandwill spend the holidays with Mrs. Hyndman's parents in Richmond. This is Mrs. Hyndman's first visit home since her marriage one year

The marriage of Mr. Arthur N. Dodd to Miss Nannie B. Dodd, which was to take place at Denny-Street Methodist church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock has been postponed indefinitely on account of his father's illness.

his father's illness.

Dr. Hoge returned home last night at 9:33. He preached three times on Sunday in New York; in the morning and at night in Westminster church, Rev. Dr. Sample, pastor, and at 4 P. M. in the Fifth-Avenue church, Rev. Dr. Halls.

Mr. R. J. Jones whose furniture establishment at No. 506 east Marshall street was visited by fire on Sunday morning, estimates, after a careful inventory that his stock was damaged to the extent of $3,000. He was fully insured.

The Scottish Rite Masons have presented

The Scottish Rite Masons have presented Mr. William Krause, the well-known Masonic caterer, a handsome 32° jewel of solid gold. Professor W. O. English made the presentation speech. The jewel was given in token of appreciation for long and faithful services.

my family.

F.

Joseph M. Fourquerean: I am going to church, as I always do on that day, and you cught to go, too.

O. H. Funsten: None of your business.
Bill Shellings: I am going to look out for free drinks,
O. H. Funsten: None of your business.

Barton Grundy: Try to kill birds with some friends.

Jacob Gans: I will let you know later.
Richard B. Garland: Hope to have a pleasant time at home with the old lady.
Louis Glazebrook: I am going to turn over a new leaf, go to church and hear Dr. Dashiell.

James T. Gray: I am going to church in the morning and spend the balance of the day at home.

Charles W. Goddin: Keep company. Be with my family and a few friends at home, I'ra Giazebrook: I am going to give the boys on the corner an opossum dinner.

A. B. Guigon: At home, where every good man ought to be.
Louis H. Gates: At home eating Horn-Harbor oysters.

N. B. Grooms: I am going to enjoy the

PRAISE YE THE LORD

MUSICAL PROGRAMMES OF VARIOUS

CHURCHES FOR CHRISTMAS-Selections to Be Rendered-Lists of Mem bers of the Choirs-Impressive Services at the Places of Worship. Day after to-morrow is Christmas, and Richmond is prepared to observe the natal day after a glorious fashion. By nearly all her churches will it be greeted with song as large as usual.

A great many churches have been beautifully dressed with holly and mistletoe and will present a most festive attire. Dainty it is hands have bedecked the church-walls with flowers and the chancels and palpits have been draped in living green.

The impressive services, beautiful church decorations, and delightful music offered at the various places of worship offer great inducements to every one to come out and join in the grand celebration of the coming of Christ.

The Catholics, Episcopalians, Lutherans, and Methodists will observe Christmastday as a religious festival by public worship, and in some of the Baptist churches there will be special Christmas music. In the Presbyterian and Disciples' churches there will be no special Christmas music dout of the regular order, but all of them have good chours.

The Disparca prints this morning so far as obtainable yesterday what may be termed the distinctive Christmas pro-as obtainable yesterday what may be termed the distinctive Christmas pro-grammes of Richmond churches, together with the names of the members of the

Mr. Jacob Reinhardt has for many years been the organist at St. Paul's, and will of course preside at the organ during the testal Christmas services.

The choir of St. Paul's is composed of The choir of St. Paul's is composed of the following lades and gentlemen: So-pranos-Mrs. Jacob Reinhardt. Misses Maggie Moore. Ellen Hobson, Hattie Ross, Eve Randolph, Lulie Williams, and Ade Williams. Contralitos—Mrs. Seymour S. Cadot, Misses Fanuie Ross and Claire Guillaume. Tenors—Messrs. Diggs, Haxail, and Higham. Bassos—Messrs. W. H. Grant, Jr., David W. McCaw, Richard H. Gaines, and Dr. James P. Roy.

The musical part of the service will be as follows: 174th hymn, "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" (Mendelssohn): Venite (Anon); Gloria Patri (Anon); Te as follows: 174th hymn, "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" (Mendelssohn); Venite (Anon); Gloria Patri (Anon); Te Denm (Smart); Jubilate Deo (Bennett); 22d hymn, "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear" (Barnby); Gloria Tibi (Short); 21th hymn, "Angels from the Realms of Glory" (Barnby); offertory, "Sing, O Heavens" (Tours).

Heavens" (Tours).

MONUMENTAL.

The members of Monumental church will assemble at 11 o'clock on Christmas morning to offer praise, and very pretty services have been arranged. The music to be rendered will be as follows: Opening Anthem, "Sing 'Alleleujah," by Dudley Buck. "Te Deum," by Thomas, Jubilate, by Tours, Gloria in Excelsis, by Tours, Offertory Anthem, "Christians, Awake! Salute the Happy Morn," by Warren, "Shout the Glad Tidings," by Warren. Tenor solo will be sung by Mr, Walter Miles, alto solo by Mrs Louise Meade, and the bass solo by Mr. Robert Harris.

CHRIST CHURCE. CHRIST CHURCE.

Christ church, of which Rev. Preston Nash is rector, is situated on the corner of Venable and Twenty-second streets in one of the most populous and promising sections of the East End. This church in its new location and building is the third in direct succession from the old Pine, apple, church on Grace street, and is one of the oldest Episcopal organizations in apple, church on Grace street, and is one of the oldest Episcopal organizations in the city. The Christmas festival will be celebrated by divine service and the sermon will be delivered at 11 A. M. by the rector. The choir, under the management of Mr. A. Netherwood, who is organist, is a full chorus composed of members of the congregation and will render appropriate congregation which will be a lowers music, among which will be a joyous Te Deum and an entirely new selection of music, among which will be a joyous Te Deum and an entirely new selection of the Psaiter. The following compose the choir: Messrs. A. Netherwood, organist; J. E. Creery, J. R. Day, Mrs. Amelia Bowers, Maude Strong, Mollie Tucker, Esther Mack, Linda Creery, and Margie Manning. The Christmas decorations will be confined to the chancel and choir gallery, as the church has been newly and beautifully freecoed. A temporary chancel rail has been placed in front of the platform and massed with evergreens; festoons depend from the apex of the recess to four points in the chancel and a brilliant star is suspended over the holy table. Plasters on either side of the chancel are decorated and loops hang in front of the choir stand. The beautiful little Chapel of the Redeemer, on Chelsca Hill, a mission of Christ church, has been tastelully dressed in evergreens by Mrs. James Gregory, the head of the mission chapter, and her assistants. Select Christmas music will be rendered here under the direction of Mrs. Carrie Gregory and her assistants at the organ, Master Charles Gregory.

Carrie Gregory and her assistant at the organ, Master Charles Gregory.

St. John's.

The services at St. John's church will commence at 11 o'clock, and an artistic musical programme is announced, as follows: Voluntary, "Messiah is King," by G. W. Warren; Venite in D. by J. V. Flagler: Gloria Patris, by Danks; Te Deum, by T. Tallis Trimmell; Jubilate Deo, by Danks; Gloria Tibi, 411, Hutchins's Hymnal; Hymns 21 and 24, Hutchins's Hymnal; Offertory, "Behold, I Bring You Good Tidings," by C. Simper. The following are the members of the choir: Sopranos—Mrs. C. E. Fitzwilson, Mrs. Dr. J. F. Crane, Miss N. Alice Moore, Miss Lola Mitchell; Altos—Mrs. J. T. Thomas, Miss Kate Fitzwilson; Tenor—Mr. F. J. Craigie, Jr.; Bassos—Mr. Charles Hindley, Mr. Edward Richardson; Cornetist—Mr. G. N. Shuman; Organist—Miss E. A. Fitzwilson.

The following programme will be rendered at All Saints church Christmas morning: Anthem, "Christmas, Awake," Warren, Venite, Fladgler in D. Te Deum, "Buck's Festival," Dr. Nares, Jubilate, Parker in E. Gloria Tibi, Tallis, Offertory, Adeste Fidelis, arranged by Neuvello. Sanctus, A. S. Cooper, The choir is composed as follows: Mr. Edward Paine, organist; Miss Nellie Rogers, Mrs. Lamb, Miss Julia Teller, and Mrs. Dr. Hugh Taylor, sopranos; Mrs. Durrett and Miss Narcissa Barton, altos; Mr. Hughes, Mr. Shuman, and Mr. Mende, tenors; Mr. Oscar Lohman and Mr. Frank Sherman, bassos. ALL SAINTS.

ST. MABE'S. Special efforts have been made to render at St. Mark's this Christmas an appropriate Special efforts have been made to render at St. Mark's this Christmas an appropriate and pleasant programme.

The standard chants and suitable hymns will be sung by the choir under the leadership of Mrs. Bertha V. Richardson.

Ives's Te Deum, which is not too elaborate to exclude congregational singing, has been prepared. They will sing Avison and Hymns 22 and 353 of the Church Hymnal, arranged with very sweet and pleasing airs.

The sopranos of the choir are Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Wilkinson, and Mrs. Quaries; the altos—Misses Weymouth, Tyler, and Beasley; tenors—Messrs, Quaries and Lindsay; bassos—Messrs, Richardson, Wilkinson, Southall, and Penzer.

The service at St. Mark's begins at half-past 11, and they will have a collection for the disabled-dergy fund.

St. JAMES.

ST. JAMES.

The programme of Christmas music at St. James church is as follows: Voluntary, "O Come, All Ye Faithful." Venite in B flat (Penfield). Glorias (Millard-Danks). Gloria in Excelsis (Hunt). Te Deum in E flat (Llovd). Jubilate in B flat (Thomas). Gloria Tibi (Molineux). Offertory, "There Were Shepherds," (Thomas). Hymns from the Hymnal. Miss Vena Harpold is leading soprano, and Miss Kate Randolph Brown organist. WEDDELL-MEMORIAL CHAPEL. MEDDELL-MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

Mr. R. T. Drowden, the organist of Weddell-Memorial chapel, has arranged a pleasing list of selections for the Christmas service, which begin at 11 o'clock in the morning. It is as follows: Voluntary, Shout the Happy Tidings, C. H. Gabriel. Venite, Exultemus Domino, No. 6, Common Praise. Jubilate Deo, No. 52, Common Praise. Jubilate Deo, No. 52, Common Praise. Jubilate Deo, No. 52, Common Praise, Jubilate Deo, No. 54, Common Praise, Jubilate Deo, No. 54, Common Praise, Jubilate Deo, No. 52, Common

At Grace church there will be very pretty devotional services, and the music will be ornate and beautiful. As yet a complete list of the selections to be sung has not been made out. The children of the Sunday school will be given a special Christmas entertainment at 4 o'clock Sunday verning, when there will be an offering to the scholars.

Catholic.

The services at St. Peter's Cathodral will be most impressive.. They will begin at 5 o'clock in the morning and there will be masses at 6, 7, 9, 9:30, and 10:30 o'clock. At the early and late services the High Mass will be celebrated, during which Carter's Festival Mass will be sung by the choir. The musical specialties will be Wigand's St. Patrick's Mass in B flat; Corilla's "Veni Creator," and Neuvello's arrangement of "Adesta Fidelis." The choir is composed of the following ladies and gentiemen: Mrs. Talley, Mrs. C. O'B. Cowardin, and Misses Kirk, Brannon, T. Phillips, E. Phillips, Evans, Rich, and Brazeral, sopranos; Mrs. Leonard, Miss Randolph, and Miss Murphy, altos; Messrs, Ordsley and Powers, tenors: Messrs, Finnegan, Holloran, Peacock, and Morrisey, bassos.

day after a glorious fashion. By nearly all her churches will it be greeted with song and praise, and joyous strains will laud to Heaven the echo of "Peace on earth; good will to men."

For many years it has been customary in Richmond for special musical programmes to be rendered in the various churches holding services on Christmas.day. This year will be no exception to this pretty rule, for the choirs have been rehearsing special selections appropriate to the occasion for the past two weeks. From the simplest carol to the most difficult jubilates or glorfa is embraced in the programmes.

Owing to the prevalence of la grippe and other maladies many of the singers have not been able to attend rehearsals regularly and the choirs will not be altogether as large as usual.

I CHURCHES PRETTLY DECORATED.

A great many churches have been beautifully dressed with holly and mistletoe and will present a most festive attire. Dainty SACRED-HEART CHURCH. cial feet, and would not do so to-day. nent banks, was held this afternoon in con-nection with the affairs of the company, at which General Thomas and Mr. Oleott were present. After the meeting both Mr. Oleott and General Thomas declared they had nothing to say. General Thomas, in reply to the questions of a reporter, said that it might be regarded as certain that there would be no assessment on the With reference to reports that a syndicate of capitalists was to raise such money as the company needed to carry its debt. General Thomas said there was very little money needed. He thought the advance in the price of the stock and its strength on the market showed how the last movement to exclude outsiders from the management of the company's affairs was regarded by the public.

It is understood that certain changes in the management of the company's affairs bracing singing, recitations, &c. ST. MARY'S. The following will be the observance at

The following will be the observance as St. Mary's church on Christmas day:
Solemn High Mass at 5 o'clock A. M.
Children's mass at 9 o'clock,
Second Solemn High Mass at 10:30,
Solemn Vespers at 3 P. M.
At the children's mass the boys and girls of the Parochiat schools will sing Latin,
German, and English hymns, accompanied by clayrons, violin, and oyan. by claironet, violin, and organ.

At the first High Mass the choir will sing Lejeal's Mass in D; at the Offertory "Leetentur Coel," by Wigand; before the sermon, "Veni Creator," by William O.

the second High Mass Schweitzer's At the second High Mass Schweitzer's "Missa in Honorem Angelorum" will be sung for the first time in Richmond. The full choir of fiften voices will be accompanied by the organ.

At the Vespers also new selections will At the Vespers also new selections will be rendered.

The principal members of the choir are:
Misses L. Hickey, M. Siedd, A. Nolte, Th.
Kusterer, A. Gerring, and A. McCann, so-pranos; Misses M. Wittkamp and A. Remke, altos; Messrs, Charles Messmor, Charles Gardewin, and J. Stumpf, tenors; Messrs, J. McEvoy and A. Fischer, bassos; musical director and organist, Charles Fr. Mutter.

Methodist.

Mutter.

Park-Place church offers an attractive musical feast on Christmas-day, as well as interesting exercises. The following is the musical programme: Voluntary, choir, Jubilate (Danks). Hymn No. 5s. Praver. Sentence, choir. Psalter, Apostles Creed. Gloria, choir. Hymn 59, "Joy to the World" (Sulfivan). Offertory, choir, Gloria, "Tweifth Mass" (Mozart). Sermon. Praver. Nune Dimittis, "Second Parisian Tone" (Stainer). Hymn 63, Herald Angels (Mendelsshen). Doxology. Benediction. Postude, organ. The music will be under the direction of Professor J. Emery Shaw, assisted by the following choir: First and Second Sopranos—Mrs. W. K. Bache, Misses Kate Whitaker, Carrie Timberlake, Maggie Curley, Hattie Hidgins, and Neille Elliott: Tenors—Messrs, H. W. Tupman, R. C. Tupman, and Wilbur Montgomery; Basses—Messrs, W. S. Tupman, W. H. Bennett, and F. E. Diggs.

Diggs.
OTHER METHODIST CHURCHES. Services will be held at Broad-Street church Christmas morning at 6 o'clock, when there will be a prayer-meeting and sermon. At 8 o'clock in the evening apub-lic Christian testimony meeting will be held.

A committee will receive contributions for the poor at Par - lace church to-night To-morrow evening a company of ladies and gentlemen will distribute the donaand general water the state of church Christmas morning at 11 o'clock and a committee will receive contribution

There will be services at Bethlehem Evangelical Lutheran church Christmas morning at 11 o'clock and at 8 o'clock at night, at which the pastor, Rev. C. J. Oehischlaeger, will officiate. Owing to the iliness of several members of the choir the usual expellent musical programme had to be dispensed with, though some special selections will be rendered at the services. The Sunday-school Christmas restival will take piace at the church Sunday night. church Sunday night.

There will be services and good music at the other Lutheran churches.

the other Lutheran churches.

The Baptists.

The First Baptist church has long been noted for its excellent choir. There will be no services at this house of worship on Christmas-day, but on the Sunday following the observances will be beautiful and elaborate. The following is the musical programme: "O. Zion, That Tellest Good Tidings" (Buck). "Adeate Tedolos" (arranged by Novello). "Festival Gloria" (Seniling). "Te beum" (Warren).

The following is the choir: Sopranos—Mrs. W. P. Knowles and Mrs. Jessa Harvey Magruder; Contraltos—Mrs. J. L. Rowe and Miss Emina Staude; Tenors—F. W. Cunningham and H. C. Magruder; Bassos—H. T. Cardozo and M. E. Ramos, W. K. Mathews, organist.

At the Clay-Street Baptist church on Christmas-day there will be speeces and rescitations by the Sunday-school scholars rescitations by the Sunday-school scholars appropriate to the occasion, and special music by the following choir: Sopranos—Miss Sallie Gwathmey, Katie Campbell, Mary Fergusson, Rosa Ragland, Emma Pemberton, and Mrs. Robert Allen, Altos—Miss Bettle Ragland, Jennie Ferguson, and Mrs. Perkins: Tenors—W. J. James, R. S. Monds, and E. T. Walthall; Bassos—G. M. Rawson, Robert Powers, B. F. Cosby, W. A. Twyman, and Charles Frauk. Special collection for Sunday-School and Bible Board.

GEOVE-AVENUE.

Board.

GROVE-AVENUE.

At Grove-Avenue Baptist church there will be impressive services on Friday morning. The music will be only ordinary, there being no regularly-organized choir. Mr. J. A. Morris is musical director of this courch.

choir. Mr. J. A. second of this courch.
Grace-Street Presbyterian.
Grace-Street Presbyterian. There will be no services at the Grace-Street Presbyterian church on Christmas There will be no services at the Grace-Street Presbyterian church on Christmasday, but the following musical programme is announced by the chor for the following Sabbath: Morning services—Organ voluntary, March (Widor), Christmas anthem, "Praise the Lord" (Porter). Hymn 74, "Hark, What Means Those Holy Voices?" (Dykes). Offertory, "Memories of Bathlehem" (Porter). Hymn 72, "To Us a Child is Born" (Holbrook). Hymn 731, "Around the Saviour's Lotty Throne" (Schubert). Postlude, "Finale" (Widor). Evening Service—Organ voluntary, Entrata (E.flat) (Capocci.) Christmas anthem, "Blessing and Honor" (Porter). Hymn 711, "Calm on the listening ear of night" (Dykes). Anthem, "Hosanna to God on High" (Porter). Hymn 68, "While shepherds watched their flocks by night" (Millard). Hymn 73, "Mortals awake, with angels join" (Mason).

The choir is composed of the following persons: Miss Fanny Mera, organist: Sopranos—Miss Moore, Miss Tribbett, Miss Pendieton, and Mrs. Fitts; Tenors—Mr. Tribbett; Basso—Mr. Blair.

They Assaulted a Dairymae,

They Assaulted a Dairyman, They Assaulted a Dairyman, Dairyman Barnes, while going into the alley between Seventh and Eighth and Clay and Leigh steets yesterday afternoon to deliver milk to his customers, was assaulted by three negroes who were drinking eggnog. His face was badly bruised about the eyes and nose, and he was knocked insensible by the first blow.
Officer W. L. Waddell saw Barnes, who told his grievances to him, and he went in after the assailants. The officer succeeded in capturing two of them, ADVANTAGE GOOD Randolph Vaughan and William Meekins, one of whom claims to be a gardner on the Executive premises.

Miss East Won the Prize. A large number of bright, expectant children were promptly on hand last evening at the handsome sales-rooms of the Singer Manufacturing Company, 205 east Broad street, to compete for the prize of $10 in gold, offered to the child under fourteen years of age who would first give the correct answer to the "ogg problem." Miss Helen East, aged thirteen, residing at No. 1010 west Marshall street, was the successful child—working the problem in less than 5-6 of the allotted time. The Richmond and Danville Meeting.

A meeting of stockholders of the Richmond and Danville railroad was held in the office of Secretary Brooke, in this city, at noon yesterday. It was the time designated for the election of the officers and Board of Directors of the road, but as there was not a quorum of the stock present the meeting was adjourned till December 29th, when it is thought the elections will take place. Mr. Inman was not present yesterday.

RICHMOND TERMINAL

MEETING OF CAPITALISTS IN THE INTEREST OF THE COMPANY.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

VERY LITTLE MONEY NEEDED.

the management of the company's affairs have already been agreed upon by General Thomas and those associated with him in the control of the company, and that as soon as Mr. Olcott's committee is appointed and takes hold it will, among other things, recommend that those changes be

WANTS $10,000 DAMAGES.

A Suit for That Amount Entered in the City City Circuit Court.

lition, but recovered.

In the case of George E. Anderson against Giles B. Jackson judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Sarsaparilla

and Liver Complaints, overcomes that tired feel ing, creates an appetite, and builds up the system

Hood's Sarsaparilla

CORNER SIXTH AND BROAD.

sold out at special prices.

THE

FIRE SALE

WILL

BUT

FEW

DAYS

TAKE

OF

LONGER.

BETTER

THINGS

WHILE

1401 Main street.

FOR RENT.

F OR RENT, THREE-STORY BRICK DWELLING No. 617 east Main street. Newly papered all through and painted tusted and out; range, hot and cold water. Very conveniently located, and will be rented very
low. SUTTON & CO.,
1014 Main street.

FOR RENT, THAT DESIRABLE ten rooms with modern conveniences, No. 2413 cast Marshall street.

JAMES H. CRENSHAW, no 39-codim 11 north Eleventh street.

THEY LAST.

CONTINUE

TURUSTEES' AUCTION SALE OF TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF

NICE BRICK DWELLING ON THE W
SIDE OF PINE BETWEEN MAIN AND CA
STREETS, KNOWN AS NO. 22 SOUTH FI STREET,—By rirue of a certain deed of a executed to the undersigned trustees, da March 19, 1891, and of record in the there fice, Richmond Chancery Court, Deed-Book A, page 415, default having been made in payment of a portion of the money seen thereby, and being required so to do by the ficiary therein names, we shall proceed to What Mr. Olcott and General Thomas Say-Certain Changes in the Management Soon to Be Made.

New Yors, December 22.—F. P. Olcott, president of the Central Trust Company. at 4:30 o'clock P. M., the PROPERTY as above. The house has been four years, and is in good order. It has a rooms and all the modern improves the location should commend it to the for a comfortable home or seeking ment. The lot from 10 feet 11 is runs back 101 feet to an alley 10 feet Truns. Cash as to expenses of sale. said this afternoon he had not yet appointed the committee to serve with him-self in adjusting the affairs of the Richmond Terminal and putting it on its finan-A meeting of capitalists, among whom were the presidents of a couple of prominent banks, was held this afternoon in con-

AUCTION SALES-This Day.

By Sutton & Co., Real Estate Agents and Auction

No. 1014 Main str

SUTTON & Co., Auctioneers.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN

HORSE AND MULE BAZAAR.

1806 to 1812 cast Franklin street,

OF 100 HEAD OF

AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Richmond, Va. Third Great Sale

WESTERN HORSES AND MITTE

WEDNESDAY, December 23, 1891, CONSISTING OF

In the City Circuit Court yesterday suit was entered by Jane E. Belton, administratrix of John J. Belton, against the Richmond Locomotive-Works for $10,000. This is a suit for damages for the death of Belton, who while employed by the defendant company was suffocated in a bonier that he was assisting in putting in position on the new City Hall building. Another man, who was in the boiler with him, was taken out in an unconscious condition, but recovered.

broke. Come and be suited By J. H. Valentine, An $101. The jury were discharged for the term CLOSING SALES ON WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY AS 100 30 A. M. .. BICH MARREE STATI ANY Is a peculiar medicine. It is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, or holiday presents.

No goods of this aimd sold in any only to The last opp runity to buy sold in Pipsissowa, Juniper Berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a FREE EXHIBITION DERING DAY.

J. H. VALENTINE, Aug.

JNO. E. LATHREON, Ju., Sabsonian. peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarraparilla curative power not possessed by other medicines. It effects remark-able cures where other preparations fail. William Jenkins & For SALE TO DAY AT 12:30 O'CLOCK Is the best blood purifier before the public. It eradicates every impurity, and cures Serofula, Salt Rheum, Bolis, Pimples, all Humors, Dya-peyats, Bilousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Debility, Catarrit, Rheumatism, Kidney , that trad feel.

D BANANAS, IPARES, APPLIES, ORA SO-LEMONS, MALAGA GRAPES, VALENCIA AND LONDON LAYER BARE COCOANUTS, PEANITS, EG. WILLIAM JENKUSS & SON de 23 1440 oat Main sus AUCTION SALES-1 afters Days.

Has met peculiar and unparalleled success at home. Such has become its popularity in Lowell, Mass., where it is made, that whole neighborhoods are taking it at the same time. Lowell COMMISSIONERS SALE OF MOST druggists sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. Sold by druggists. SI; six for 55. Perpared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar Meyers-6th & Broad. Open Until 10 o'Clock Te-Night.

The big Xmas stock of Toys, Fancy Goods, and presents generally is being COME QUICKLY. Among the many special offerings are Elegant Colored Pastels with delicate-colored enamel frames, reduced to $1.50 each.

Fine Engravings, size 30x40 inches, with wide white and gold frames, $2.50 each.
Fine Engravings and Etchings with elogant commel frames reduced to $2.00 each.
Fancy Indian Baseles such as are used for knitting work and strap-baseles, are now selling at less than half price.
500 dozen Purs Linen Handkerchiefs for gentlemen, hemstickhed, colored borders,
10c. each In the Toy-Room many of the large dollar Toys have been reduced to 75c.,

JULIUS MEYER & SONS,

so sold to be a superior has been the money therefor has been the fer or conveyance thereof. Has been the Court.

MEADE HASHINS.

BEVERLEY B. MUNFORD.

F. L. MGGUHE.

J. RANDOLFH FUCKER, JR.

R. M. DICKINSON.

Special Contules there

ORANGE-KEYSVILLE HAILBOAD COMPANY, AS DEFENDANTS, AND ELEASON, SAIRS A CO., PLANNIFF, ANALYS OF STREET, AND STREET

Given under my hand this 8th day of I or, 1891. CHARLES W. GOIDS By J. Thompson Brown & Co.,

1113 Main street. SMALL AND LARGE SIZE Dwellings, Stores, Building Lots,

COHEN, SUBURBAN ACREAGE

AUCTION PRICES. FOR DESCRIPTION AND PRICES CALL FOR FOR RENT, FRAME DWELLACRES OF LAND in Woodville, near Mechanics ville pike. Low rent to good tenant. Call quick and secure a bargato.
de 22-24

Real Estate Progress.

J. THOMPSON BROWN & CO.

de-20-cod3t

Ac-20-cod3t

REAL ESTATE AGENTS, &c. M. BLANTON,

No. 810 MAIN STREET.

Agent FOR THE SALE, RENTAL, AND GENERAL MANAGEMENT, OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF REAL ESTATE.

Utmost care in negotiating Loans. Every transaction entirely confidential.

Notary Public and Coursyancer.

de 13-Sulewick

REAL ESTATE AGENT AND NOTE BROKER